ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

A summer orchestral workshop for woodwind players filled with music, friendship, and a final concert in the heart of Prague.

Two days of intensive music-making in a woodwind orchestra, with sectional rehearsals, a diverse repertoire of classical, film, and popular music, and an engaging program.

A concluding public concert in the heart of Prague.

WHO IS THE WORKSHOP FOR?

The workshop is open to players of:

flute

oboe

clarinet

saxophone

bassoon

All players,
a shared love of music,
and unforgettable experiences!

PARTICIPATION CONDITIONS

The workshop is open to players of flute, oboe, clarinet, saxophone, and bassoon of all ages and skill levels.

Participants should have basic experience with their instrument; experience playing in an orchestra is not required – experience and the desire to learn are what matter most.

Minors may participate with the consent of a legal guardian.

The capacity of the workshop is limited.

Price of the workshop:
200€ / 175£

ORGANIZATION, SCHEDULE

An intensive orchestral and sectional workshop led by experienced instructors.

Sheet music and practice materials will be provided in advance for home preparation.

The program is scheduled over two full days.

The workshop concludes with a public final concert in the heart of Prague.

A space to meet fellow musicians, make music together, and enjoy a friendly, inspiring atmosphere.

Come join us
and experience music that connects!
